Notice: The Platteville Derby Day parade is run as a fun, entertaining, and family-oriented event. It is not meant as a forum for individuals and groups wishing to make political statements. As such, the Derby Day committee reserves the right to refuse entry into the parade any unit which it deems objectionable because of any type of non-family graphic or vocal representation.

No alcoholic beverages are to be consumed in the parade or in any undesignated area. The throwing of candy or other objects from parade units to bystanders is strictly forbidden for safety reasons. Persons may walk along side of the curb and hand out items, but do so at their own risk. Any parade unit disobeying this safety rule will be asked to stop and/or be pulled from the parade. Safety is our priority; therefore please refrain from making loud noises in the staging area.

The Platteville Regional Chamber and Derby Day Committee are not responsible for personal belongings.

In consideration of the acceptance of this entry to the Derby Day Horse Parade, the individual named as "Name of Individual or Group" and as authorized by all participants in this entry or their legal representatives, agrees and understands that the Derby Day Parade including any of its agents, officials, employees and/or volunteers assumes no responsibility for any personal and/or bodily injury and/or property damage suffered by and/or caused by "Name of Individual or Group" and/or property owned and /or used by "Name of Individual or Group" including but not limited to vehicles, equipment, and horses in connection with the Derby Day Horse Parade. Adult parents or guardians of minor children participating hereby agree to indemnify the Derby Day Horse Parade, its agents, officials, employees and volunteers from any claim made by said parents of minor children for injuries they might receive herein.
